7. USEFUL INFORMATION

Holi, India's famous festival of colors. What prettier way to celebrate the arrival of spring than to participate in Holi, the inescapable festival of colors, also a symbol of renewal and fertility. Every year during the full moon of Phalguna (February or March), Holi entails India in a collective and colorful madness ... The opportunity to sprinkle his friends, his family or even complete strangers with colored powders! On that day, real scenes from Bollywood films animate the streets of India until nightfall, between a profusion of colors and frenzied dancing. Thus, green symbolizes harmony while blue represents vitality. Red love for the future. Orange for optimism and pink signifies femininity. Yellow is the symbol of friendship and purple is happiness.
